COMAK CLIPPINGS

Dear Bruce,

As the winter snow melts away, we begin to think of enjoying the time outside in our yards.

Does your yard still bring you the pleasure it once did. Does it fit your current lifestyle for time to be spent with family and friends. Just as styles constantly change in fashion, they change in landscaping as much. Landscape materials and plants that are in vogue now, didn't even exist 10 years ago.

Let us create a "staycation" place in your yard.

Sincerely,

Bruce Comak
